Eligibility: To be eligible for financial aid in an internship program:

- You must be accepted into an internship program approved by the Psychology Department.
- You must meet all the requirements to apply for financial aid, including the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and any requested additional documentation.

Part 2 – Internship Budget: To be completed by internship students.

Because you will be using federal funds, it is necessary to confer with the Graduate Psychology Program Administrator to be sure a reasonable budget is being submitted.

Please list figures that will most accurately reflect costs that will be incurred by you for this internship.
