STUDENT STANDARD OF CONDUCT

The same standards of conduct that prevail during the school year are maintained during the summer. Candidates for degrees, students living in college housing, and students participating in off-campus/overseas programs agree, as part of the admission application, to adhere to the following standards while enrolled: to refrain from the possession or use of alcoholic beverages, non-medicinal narcotic or hallucinogenic drugs including marijuana and tobacco, from gambling, from social dancing, and to exercise Christian discretion and restraint in the choice of entertainment including television, radio, movies, theater, and the various forms of literature. Special (non-degree) students enrolled are expected to observe these standards while on campus.

I agree to observe the Wheaton Standards of Conduct during my enrollment as a summer school student as stated above. I understand this includes attending chapel if enrolled full-time on campus as an undergraduate.
