Every member of the Wheaton College community—every employee, faculty member, trustee, and student—is a member of this community by virtue of his or her ongoing affirmation of our Community Covenant, http://www.wheaton.edu/welcome/aboutus\_community.html.

As the covenant itself says:

For Wheaton's community covenant to serve its stated purpose, it is crucial that each member of the College family understand it clearly and embrace it sincerely. In joining this covenant we are, before the Lord, joining in a compact with other members of the Wheaton College community. If we do not wish to live under the provisions of this compact, we should not agree to it. But if we do agree to it, it should be with the full intention of living with integrity under its provisions.

By signing this registration statement I confirm that I have read and understand Wheaton's Community Covenant and that I am in agreement with it. I am affirming my commitment to live with integrity under its provisions.
