Verification of Illinois State Residency
Dependent Student
With Parent Serving Overseas In the Military or Missionary Service

A dependent student is eligible for an Illinois State Grant only if his/her parent is a resident of the State of Illinois. When the parent is currently serving overseas in the military or in missionary service, we must verify Illinois residency for the parent of the student before requesting state grant funds. Please complete this form and attach all documentation available; this will be submitted to the Illinois Student Assistance Commission for their decision.

TO BE COMPLETED BY THE PARENT OF THE DEPENDENT STUDENT:

In order for my son/daughter to be eligible for state grant funds, I understand that I must:

1. Have been assigned to duty outside the United States by an organization that engages in educational, philanthropic, humanitarian or altruistic works. A missionary organization must be exempt from the payment of federal taxes and must have been engaged in placing foreign missionaries for at least five years.

My employing agency, _____, does _____ does not _____ meet this requirement.
