

Wheaton College Human Needs and Global Resources Symposium 2008

sponsored by John Deere

My Land, My People

Property Rights, Poverty Reduction, and Policy Reform
February 29-March 1, 2008

Friday, February 29

Chapel: Dr. Paul Robinson, HNGR Director
10:30, Edman Chapel

Tray Lunch
11:30-1:00, North Party Room
Open to faculty, HNGR interns, and alumni

"We Are Where We Are From" -- Alumni Reflections
1:15-2:15, Coray Auditorium

The Dynamics of Urbanization in Kibera Slum
2:30-3:30, Coray Auditorium

Urban Property and Political Development in Africa
3:45-5:00, Coray Auditorium

Plenary Address: Dr. Aklilu Dalelo, Professor of Geography and Environmental Education, Addis Ababa University
7:00-9:00, Coray Auditorium

Saturday, March 1

Taking it Home: Land and Policy in Washington, DC
9:30-10:00, Coray Auditorium

Panel Discussion: Our Land, Our People?
Reflections on Kenya's Crisis
10:00-11:30, Coray Auditorium

Lunch Celebration
12:15-2:00, South Party Room,
Open to HNGR interns and alumni

We are very grateful for a generous endowment from the John Deere Foundation that makes this annual Symposium possible.
The views of Symposium participants do not necessarily reflect the positions of John Deere or Wheaton College.