¹ Courses that meet CATC Thematic Core tags (with a max of 3 counting toward graduation) include the following: LALS 301 (DUS, GP), SPAN 335 (GP), SPAN 337 (LE, GP), SPAN 357 (DUS), GPS 301 (VPAV), GPS 302 (HP), GPS 321 (SI). Several other major electives also carry CATC Thematic Core tags.

² The Latin American and Latino Studies major requires an academic term abroad of at least one semester. Students may choose HNGR, Wheaton in Mexico, or another approved program. Courses taken in the summer Wheaton in Latin America or Wheaton in Spain can count toward the major. See faculty advisor for more information on program specifics including coursework.

The Latin American and Latino Studies major requires 24 hours of courses in Spanish. Study abroad courses taught in Spanish may be counted as LALS major electives. Students who begin their Spanish studies at the 100-level or 200-level can also complete a Latin American and Latina/o Studies major at Wheaton; they would begin taking the 300-level courses following completion of Spanish 201.
