Welcome to Wheaton College!

Whether you have decided to launch your Wheaton College experience with Wheaton Passage or you’re still on the fence, read on to learn the ins and outs of this unique pre-orientation program. You will meet new classmates in a fun environment, interact with professors outside of the classroom, and build confidence before stepping on campus. We hope to see you at Passage!
Read what students shared after their Passage experience:

“It wasn’t eager to leave home, but after experiencing Passage I’m so much more excited for college and to continue to build these relationships that began there.”

“Passage is something every incoming Wheaton student should participate in. It gave me the chance to grow stronger in my faith, meet amazing people without the stress of orientation and it was an incredible blessing, and the few very close friends that I made have been incredibly supportive. Besides that, it is just a fun, beautiful experience.”

“In the way to go, especially if you feel like you need a break and I was good break and I made stronger connections with friends than if we would have had our phones. Also reading those books and having the discussions with the professor in a non-academic environment really allowed me to be trusting and open with myself and get the help I desperately needed.”

“It has made all the difference. Spiritually, I feel much more mature than I did even three weeks ago. Practically, recognizing two hundred or so faces on campus during orientation week has been an incredible blessing, and the few very close friends that I have made have been incredibly supportive. Besides that, it is just a fun, beautiful experience.”

“It was an extremely valuable time that I doubt I will ever be able to replicate again. Not having technology was a good break and I made stronger connections with friends than if we would have had our phones. ABOUT WHEATON PASSAGE

Wheaton Passage is Wheaton’s pre-orientation program designed to prepare students for life at Wheaton through shared experiences, faculty mentors, and an introductory curriculum in spiritual formation.

Designed and led by HoneyRock, the Outdoor Center for Leadership Development, Wheaton College, Passage provides students with strong social connections, supportive faculty relationships, and a vision for their time at Wheaton. Come join 300 of your peers on this passage into Wheaton!

PROGRAM DATES:

Part 1: Choose your track!

Wilderness: August 4–19
Urban: August 7–19
Northwoods/Equestrian: August 11–19

For more detailed information on the track options, visit wheaton.edu/passage.

Part 2: Converge with Faculty

While each track starts out on their own, all tracks converge together with faculty from August 14–19 at HoneyRock.

COURSE INFORMATION

Wheaton Passage is a 2-credit course through the Christian Formation and Ministry Department. The course is called Introduction to Spiritual Formation (CFM:131). Regardless of your major, these credits will contribute to elective credit hours.

COURSE COSTS

The cost for all tracks is $795. This includes housing, transportation (van pickups from Midway and O’Hare airports as well as coach transport between Wheaton’s main campus, the Urban Studies Facility and HoneyRock). The first installment will be a $100 deposit taken at the time of registration. The remaining $695 will be charged to your Fall semester bill from Wheaton College. There are also some costs associated with buying course books and supplies.

REGISTRATION

To register, visit wheaton.edu/passage and follow the link to register.

PRE-COURSE WORK AND READINGS

This course involves pre-course work. Students are required to purchase and read two course texts. Students will then complete discussion questions that are embedded in the Wheaton Passage Workbook.

1. Embracing the Love of God by James Bryan Smith (either edition is fine). This book can be purchased through the Wheaton College bookstore at wheatonbooks.com, or through an outside vendor like Amazon. You must purchase a hard copy of this book (not an e-book) because you will not have access to electronics during Passage.

2. Wheaton Passage Workbook. This workbook, published by Kendall Hunt, contains the course syllabus, a student checklist, and various readings and assignments. This book can be purchased through the Wheaton College bookstore at wheatonbooks.com. Be sure you have a 2021 version! You must purchase a print copy of this book (not an e-book) as you will not have access to electronics during Passage.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Lunch at Check-In
Students will be responsible for getting their own lunch on the day of check-in. A map with directions to dining locations within walking distance of Smith/Traber Hall is provided at check-in.

Introductory Meeting
There is an introductory meeting for all students and parents at 3:00 p.m. For Northwoods, Equestrian, and Wilderness students, this meeting will be in Barrows auditorium in the Billy Graham Center. For Urban students this meeting will be in the Meyer Science Center Lecture Hall. After the meeting, students will say their goodbyes to family and friends and then either load up buses or begin the packing process for Wilderness!

Campus Storage
Campus Storage in Fischer Hall and Smith/Traber Hall (both Freshman dorms) will be available between 10:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. at check-in. Any student driving or flying in for Passage will have access to these storage spaces. These are the only times that campus storage will be open.

If you are a transfer student who will not be living in Fischer or Smith/Traber, you can still store your things in either storage location during the course.

Return to Campus
Students will return to Wheaton College on Thursday, August 19 in the afternoon. Parents are welcome to meet students at the McManis-Evans hall upon arrival. Updates on arrival time will be posted on the HoneyRock Facebook page as well as announced via loudspeaker on campus. Orientation begins on Friday, August 20.
