Daniel Nayeri

Newbery Award-winning author Daniel Nayeri was born in Iran and lived for three years in refugee camps in Dubai and Rome before settling in 1990 with his family—when Nayeri was eight—in Edmond, Oklahoma. He later graduated from Edmond Memorial High School and attended New York University, where he studied writing.

Mr. Nayeri is the author of books for young readers, including Everything Sad is Untrue (A True Story), winner of the Michael L. Printz Award, the Christopher Medal, and the Middle Eastern Book Award; and The Many Assassinations of Samir, the Seller of Dreams, winner of this year's Newbery Honor Award. He lives in New Jersey with his wife and son.

Everything Sad is Untrue (A True Story) was this year's Core Book at Wheaton and is based on Mr. Nayeri's experience immigrating to the United States with his family as refugees. Nayeri testifies to the influence of his mother's strong faith in Jesus Christ through his painful but often humorous stories about navigating cultural differences as an Iranian in America.

Among many other Core Book activities, Mr. Nayeri came to campus this past fall to lecture and participate in panel discussions. He spoke about ways well-meaning people can provide dignity as part of hospitality by allowing refugees to give back. "By that, I mean being useful to someone, bringing their talents to bear, or sharing some part of themselves," he said publicly last year. "These are all moments that, generally speaking, people appreciate. I don't know many people who want to be getting without giving."

Once you enter the auditorium and are seated, please mute cell phones and do not leave your seat except in an emergency. A professional photographer will make available an individual photo of each graduate being awarded the diploma. A video recording of the Commencement ceremony will be available at www.youtube.com/wheatoncollege.

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The history of academic dress reaches far back into the early days of the oldest universities. European institutions show great diversity in their specifications of academic dress, but American colleges and universities have followed a costume code adopted by the American Council on Education. The bachelor's gown traditionally has pointed sleeves. The master's gown is distinguished by its oblong sleeve. The gown for the doctor's degree has bell-shaped sleeves. The velvet border of the hood indicates the type of degree conferred, such as navy blue for Ph.D., scarlet for Th.D. or other theology or divinity degrees, pink for music degrees, white for M.A. or other liberal arts degrees, purple for law degrees, light blue for Ed.D., etc. The colorful hood linings represent the official colors of the college or university conferring the degree. The length of the hood and the width of the trim are determined by the degree.

Graduation Honors are awarded on the basis of scholastic average. The honors noted in this program are final for December graduates and tentative for all other graduates.

How Great Thou Art

1. O Lord my God! When I in awesome won-der Con-sid-er all
2. When thro' the woods and for-est glades I wan-der, And hear the birds
3. And when I think that God, His Son not spar-ing, Sent him to die,
4. When Christ shall come with shout of ac-cla-ma-tion, And take me home, the *worlds Thy hands have made, I see the stars, I hear the *roll-ing sing sweet-ly in the trees; When I look down from loft-y moun-tain

I scarce can take it in; That on the cross, my bur-den glad-ly what joy shall fill my heart! Then I shall bow in hum-ble ad-o-

Then sings my soul, my Sav-ior God, to Thee; How great Thou

Thee; How great Thou art, how great Thou art!
