Rev. Dr. Amy Peeler, Graduate Biblical and Theological Studies

Jeannette L. Hsieh Fellowship for Faith, Culture, and American Life

The Hsieh Fellows are named in honor of Trustee Emerita, Dr. Jeanette L. Hsieh.

The Fellows recognize the accomplishments of a full-time, tenure-line (pre-tenure and tenured) Wheaton faculty member in the areas of scholarship and/or teaching relevant to aspect(s) of Christian faith and race, ethnicity, and/or women in American Life. The Hsieh Fellow aims to advance the mission of Wheaton College in the area of biblical diversity in American Life through excellence in faculty scholarship and pedagogy to further enhance the flourishing of diversity, justice, equity, and unity at Wheaton College.

Areas of scholarship and/or teaching should demonstrate both excellence and relevance to building the church and benefiting society in areas such as racial justice and reconciliation, women in history, women in ministry or the workplace, restorative justice, or immigration; global and international areas of focus in World Christianity can also be considered if the project explores some impact of race, ethnicity, and women.

The first cohort of fellows includes:

Dr. Hanmee Kim, History
Rev. Dr. Amy Peeler, Biblical and Theological Studies (Graduate)
Dr. Carlos Sosa Siliezar, Biblical and Theological Studies (Undergrad)
