G.K. CHESTERTON FAMILY CORRESPONDENCE

Size: 318 Folders (approx. 2 linear feet)

Restrictions: Permission from the proper literary executors is required to photocopy or publish any materials from this archive not yet in the public domain.

This archive contains correspondence with G.K. Chesterton, some of his extended family, and his secretary, Dorothy Collins. The letters are arranged alphabetically by the sender, and correspondence by G.K. and Frances Chesterton is filed at the end of the archive in folders 301-318. Multiple letters from one correspondent are arranged chronologically.

All new Chesterton-related correspondence acquisitions will be added to this archive.

| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 1904. folded to make 4 pp. single sheet. 9 x 7.25 on Rye Mill hand-made paper, pages 2 and 4 are blank. Pg 1 is headed “Christmas, 1904” and there follows, on this and pg. 3, a poem of six 8-line verses, w/ the printed attribution at the end, “G.K. Blogg.” poem is probably a collaboration, though mainly written by Frances. • 1910. unfolded. 8.5 x 5.5” on pale cream (sl dusty) hand-made paper. swallows in flight, w/in is a drawing of the Chesterton’s home, Overroads, Beaconsfield, w/ pet dog, Quoodle, a Scotch terrier, sitting prominently in foreground. Pleasantly coloured by hand, probably by Frances. Beneath it is printed, “With Greetings from Frances & Gilbert Chesterton. Christmas, 1910.” • 1911. unfolded. 11.25 x 5.5” Nicely coloured. Beneath the drawing is the greeting, “From Frances and Gilbert Chesterton Christmas, 1911.” and a poem of three 4-line verses by Frances, starting: In her warm arms Our Lady holds her Son. • 1912. unfolded. 11.25 x 6.5” Nicely coloured in by hand. Beneath is is “With greetings from Frances and Gilbert Chesterton Christmas, 1912” after this comes a poem of three 6-line verses by Frances. • 1913. unfolded. 10.75 x 5.62” This has been coloured in w/ rather more care than were other illustrations. Beneath it is “With greetings from Frances and Gilbert Chesterton. Christmas, 1913” and this is followed by a poem by G.K.C., a longer version of which was later to appear in his collection, poems (1915) as THE WISE MEN. This, therefore, is the true 1st edition of this well-known poem. Small brown spot in right margin; 2nd card has less intense coloring, but still distinguishable and bottom right corner repaired and reattached to card with some sort of tape and/or paste. • 1917. unfolded. 9.75 x 6.5” single sheet. It is not coloured. There follows “With Greetings from Frances and Gilbert Chesterton, Christmas, 1917” then Frances’s most famous poem, “How Far is it to Bethlehem?”, seven 4-line verses. • 1918. unfolded. 9.75 x 6.25” single sheet. Coloured. Greeting for Christmas 1918 follow, then “Seen and Unseen”, a poem of nine 4-line verses by Frances.
